Mr Ian Frost

Lecturer (Hospitality Operations), William Angliss Institute

Ian Frost is a Lecturer in Hospitality Operations in the Faculty of Higher Education programs at William Angliss Institute. His particular subject area is wine studies although this extends to food and beverage operations. He has worked in VET and HE and has a wealth of restaurant and hotel management experience in Australia and the UK. Ian initiated and ran the Victorian TAFE Barista competition for some years to help promote collaboration between TAFE institutes and to improve the skills of all associated students.

Ian has been a member of Sommeliers Australia since 1997. He has more recently undertaken research into the language of wine tasting and the role this plays in fostering learning. He has been integral in establishing and developing the Angliss Wine Society as a means for engaging students in the field and the profession. It has since grown to a membership of over 800.
