Dr Peter Ryan

Founder & CEO of the Higher Education Leadership Institute (HELI)

Dr Peter Ryan is a researcher and advisor to institutions involved in the provision of higher education in the non-university higher education sector, with over 30 years expertise. His specialties lie in assisting with the process of approval to deliver higher education courses in Australia outside the university sector, as well as providing good governance in an educational context.

Additionally, Peter has provided strategic advice and regulatory due diligence for prospective purchasers of higher education institutions.

Peter is Founder & CEO of the Higher Education Leadership Institute (HELI). HELI is a consortium of fellow higher education experts and researchers, delivering global best-practice advisory services and training to higher education providers. The aim is to contribute to the continued elevation and professional standards of the high-growth non-university higher education sector in Australia.
