2018 Fellow of THE-ICE

Mr Alan Williams

Retired

Nominated by Dr Paul Whitelaw, Associate Director, Higher Education and Quality, William Angliss Institute, Melbourne, Australia

Awarded for his outstanding individual support of THE-ICE.

Mr Alan Williams was recognised as a Fellow of THE-ICE for his service as one of the Founding Directors of THE-ICE Board since 2008. In 2012, Alan was elected as Treasurer of THE-ICE Board and made significant contribution to the organisation and its development, especially in its early and formative years. He was also a pioneer, as one of the first members of THE-ICE to openly share his own 'confidential' i-graduate benchmarking data, demonstrating how his institution had used this data for internal quality assurance and institutional improvement.

Mr Williams has also made an outstanding contribution to the sector as an active Director and Member on a number of peak industry education bodies in education and training including APacCHRIE, Western Australia Private Education & Training Industry Association and Australian Association of Hotel Schools, among others.
