Real World Learning Continuum

	Real World....						.....Learning
Context	No formal education or qualification	Long term learning undertaken in the Real World		Short term learning in the Real World and 'in the classroom'	Creating the RW inside academia	Bringing the RW inside the classroom	Traditional learning
Focus	Output	Employability		Blended learning	Experiential learning	Enhancing learning	Qualification/assessment
Example	Employment, full or PT	Work & Study programmes	Extended placements	Industry visits/employment labs	Training hotel	PBL, guest lectures, case study	Lectures
Balance RW/ Learning	All RW. Learning on the job or through training.	RW with some learning	RW but as part of educational programme and to agreed educational learning outcomes	Joint projects between industry and academic partner, with some RW experience	RW experience (working with 'real' customers) within controlled environment	Traditional approaches, but based on RW examples/content	All 'learning' with little/no attempt to include RW content

Thank you for your attention
