Dr Juvy Tamondong

Core Faculty, College of International Tourism and Hospitality Management, Lyceum of the Philippines University Laguna, Philippines

Dr. Tamondong is an educator of almost 25 years where her burning passion holds her to stay in the academe to service students at her utmost determination to teach. She graduated from the Pontifical University of Santo Tomas where she took up Bachelor of Science in Hotel and Restaurant Management. She holds a Masters degree in Business Management and Master in Management, Major in Hospitality Management, from Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation. She believes that learning doesn't stop and so she decided to finish her Doctor in Business Management with specialization in Hospitality Management at Philippine Women's University, Manila. Due to her limited range of knowledge in culinary, she enrolled in short courses such as Basic Culinary in International School for Culinary Arts and Hotel Management (ISCAHM) and Asian Cuisine in Intramuros to enhance her skills in the kitchen.

Dr. Tamondong started as an instructor at Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation and assumed the position as the head of the College of Tourism and Hospitality Management after two years. She oversaw the overall operation of the college which includes the budget, accreditation, improvement, and more. For twenty years of service, she transferred to the University of Batangas main campus where she was appointed as the department chair of the college. Dr. Tamondong has consultancy experience in resort and restaurant operations and is very active in professional organizations. In fact, she is the president of Philippine Association of Researchers in Tourism and Hospitality in Region IV. She is also the current auditor of the Council of Restaurant Educators of the Philippines in the same region. Her dedication to serve other educational institutions was made possible by being part of the Regional Quality Assessment Team in Region IV and as a PACUCOA accreditor in Hospitality and Tourism programs.
